

The Fab Four

Fabulous fun, amazing artistry

To say that KISS guitarist Paul Stanley was amazed when he saw The Fab Four at the House of Blues is to put it mildly. “We sat in the audience and our jaws dropped...and it’s pretty difficult to have our jaws drop,” says Stanley. “I can’t think of a better band that sounds more like The Beatles and carries that spirit. The Fab Four could blow away any audience. They are awesome.”

K-EARTH 101 Radio simply calls the group, “The best Beatle cover band in the world.”

The Fab Four’s fame has spread far beyond Los Angeles and the House of Blues, however. John, Paul, George and Ringo – Ron McNeil, Ardy Sarraf, Michael Amador, and Rolo Sandoval – have appeared to sold-out audiences worldwide, including Japan, Malaysia, Hong Kong, the United Kingdom, Germany, Mexico and Brazil.

Each stage show produced by The Fab Four includes three costume changes, representing every era of The Beatles’ career. As Louise Harrison, sister of George Harrison comments, The Fab Four’s note-for-note renditions of such beloved songs as Can’t Buy Me Love, Yesterday, A Day in the Life, Penny Lane, Here Comes The Sun, and Hey Jude “will keep the spirit of The Beatles alive for generations to come.”
